Orgs throw a local “Night of the Wild Cat” to celebrate cougars and other big cats

– Friday, March 2, event features films from the International Big Cats Film Festival plus mountain lion experts –

Jackson, Wyo., (Feb. 22, 2018) – Jackson Hole’s mountain lions and other big cat species from around the globe will be given the spotlight at a local World Wildlife Day celebration on Friday, March 2, 2018 at the Center Theater.

Presented by Jackson Hole WILD and co-hosted by The Cougar Fund, “Night of the Wild Cat: Celebrating Lions and Tigers and Cougars (oh, my!)” will include a world-premiere screening of “The Age of Big Cats: Puma” (a.k.a. mountain lion), and other short films featuring big cats.

The audience will also hear from local wildlife experts about challenges and successes for the valley’s resident big cat.

Tickets for “Night of the Wild Cat” are available through the Center for the Arts Box Office for $10 plus $2 Vendini fee for adults. Children under 12 are free.

Look for amazing raffles, including a Tom Mangelsen print, Mountainsmith backpack and more.

Doors and bar open at 6:30 p.m. Films begin at 7 p.m.
